TAX, Legal and Regulatory Event for the industry, by the industry

Join us at the only technical private equity and venture capital conference to be completely devised, delivered and hosted by practising industry authorities

The BVCA's Tax, Legal and Regulatory Committees have joined forces for the second year to bring you a combined technical conference that addresses the practical impact of the complex and technical issues faced by private equity and venture capital practitioners and advisers.

Delegates will gain an enhanced understanding of the technical issues at a time when our industry is facing significant regulatory and taxation developments. The one-day conference also includes vital networking and contact-building opportunities and is exclusive to all BVCA members.
